

CREDIT LINKAGES

We are thrilled to offer you the opportunity to gain credits towards a degree at Southern Cross University through your qualification with DP Training. This document will give you more information on the credits you can earn towards the degree you wish to pursue.

Credit Linkages and Pathway Benefits for Students:

- Allow a person to better plan their study and career path in advance;
- Enable non-traditional entry to Higher Education by elevating a person's university selection based on their prior learning;
- Provide greater support for people transitioning between different academic levels, cultures and technologies;
- Build academic skills and confidence or progressively over time and facilitate life-long learning;
- Reduce the overall cost and duration of a degree;
- Allow students to use their prior vocational knowledge and skills to work their way through their degree and
- Reward a person with multiple qualifications in the shortest possible time, which is advantageous for employment, promotion and increasing remuneration

What are Vocational Qualification Credit Linkages?

Credit linkages facilitate entry (admission) and/or credit for prior learning (advanced standing) into SCU degrees for any person holding one of the vocational courses or qualifications published at www.scu.edu.au/aqfvocationallinkages. Students can confidently articulate into the first or second year of a discipline-related undergraduate or postgraduate degree with predetermined credit outcomes, no matter how the learning was obtained: face-to-face, on-campus, or online. If the SCU qualification is CRICOS registered, credit linkage arrangements are also applicable to international students who will study in Australia on a student visa.
